

30 Northstoke Way Orange NSW

4 2 5

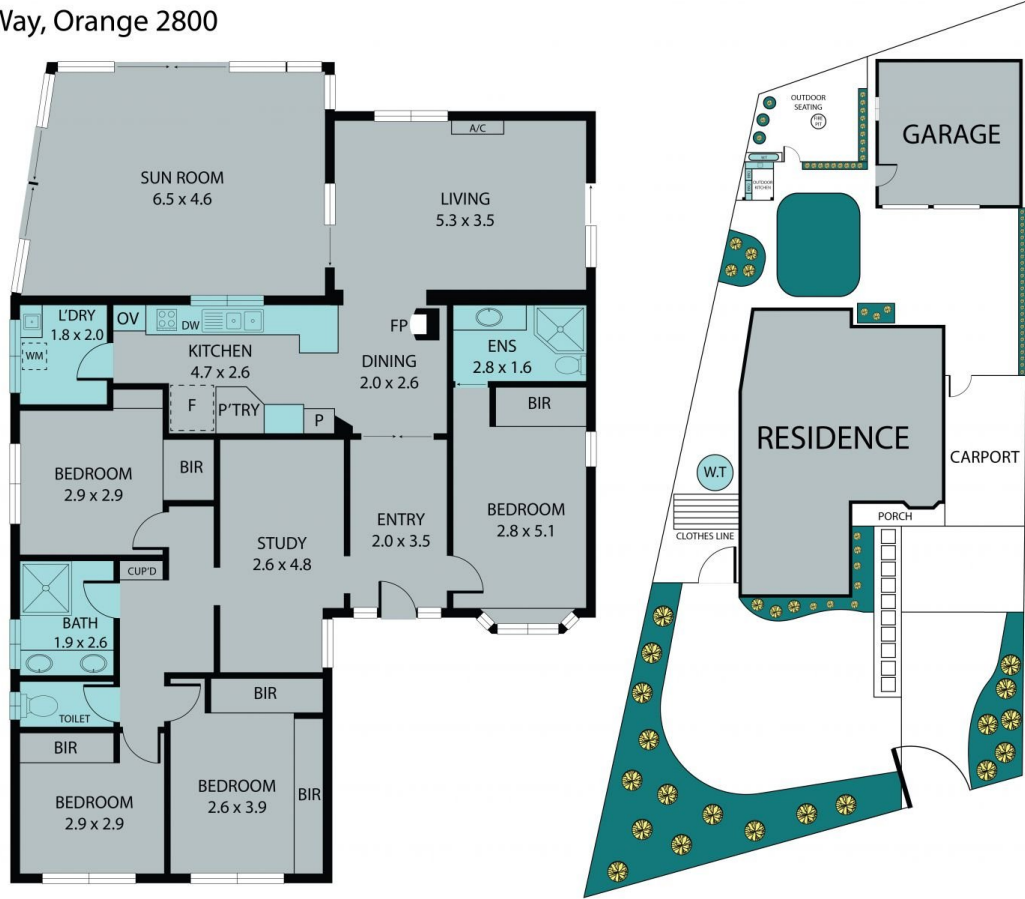

Every element of 30 Northstoke Way - from its spacious design to its quiet, peaceful location - has been thoughtfully geared towards family living. The house boasts an array of stylish and practical features, including built-in wardrobes in all four bedrooms, kitchen equipped with quality appliances, separate living areas, and the combination of ducted gas and split-system air conditioning temperature control. But the interior is just one side of the property's seemingly endless list of features. The backyard houses a super double-bay shed that includes a kitchenette, toilet, workshop and wood fireplace. Combined with the carport at the front, there is room for as many cars, boats, caravans and other vehicles as you could possibly need. All of this in a familyfriendly and sought-after West Orange location, and situated within the Orange High School zone.
